had employed some of the most noisel ductors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded at hope less. All who knew the circumstances said I must die. Finally, my wife induced me to try a bottle of Dr. Kennesdy's "Favorite Remedy' which she had somewhere heard of or seen advertisch. Without the slightest faith in it, but solely to grafify her, I bought a bottle of a drugnist in our village. I need that and two or three bottles more, and—to make a long stony short—I am now as healthy a man as there is in the country.

Since then I have recommended Tavorite assure the public that the Tavorite Remedy' has done its work with a similar completeness in every single instance, and I trust some other sick and discouraged mortal may bear of it and try the "Favorite Remedy' as I did."
